L.A.I.D. PLANS FOR FRAUD CAREFULLY.

Prior to February, 1911, Gwynne, a prosperous, polished individual, living at the Hotel Belmont...

In February, the spurious Gwynne went to the Madison Square Hotel, and admitted his crime and stated he was Baldwin J. Gwynne of Columbus, O.

Mr. Lough consulted the directors and found that the name of Baldwin J. Gwynne was sufficiently impressive to warrant the opening of an account...

The defendant, McQuade, invokes the rule, "stated the Court, that as between two innocent parties that party should be the sufferer who has acted in a wrong-doer with the power of imposing on or deceiving the other."

JUSTICES LIMIT CITY COURT TO JUDGMENTS OF $2,000. Act Increasing Jurisdiction to $5,000 Cases Called Un-constitutional.

The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, by a unanimous vote, declined today to grant writs of habeas corpus...

The action was for the breach of a written contract, and Justice Clarke, who wrote the opinion, went into a long history of the courts as to their jurisdiction.

Justice Clarke said that the Constitutional Convention of 1894 created an entirely new judicial system. It preserved the Court of Appeals with a limited jurisdiction, continued the Supreme Court as the only court of original jurisdiction...

GIRLS' HOTEL PLANS READY. Mrs. Frederick Vanderbilt announced yesterday afternoon that the plans for the new hotel for working girls...
